Safer Internet Day

RD have been learning about how to stay safe on the internet. Paul Bradshaw read a story called "Chicken Clicking" which helped us to understand that people you don't know are strangers and are not always who they say they are.