

Computing

The children enjoyed recreating a 3D map of the geographical walk previously followed.

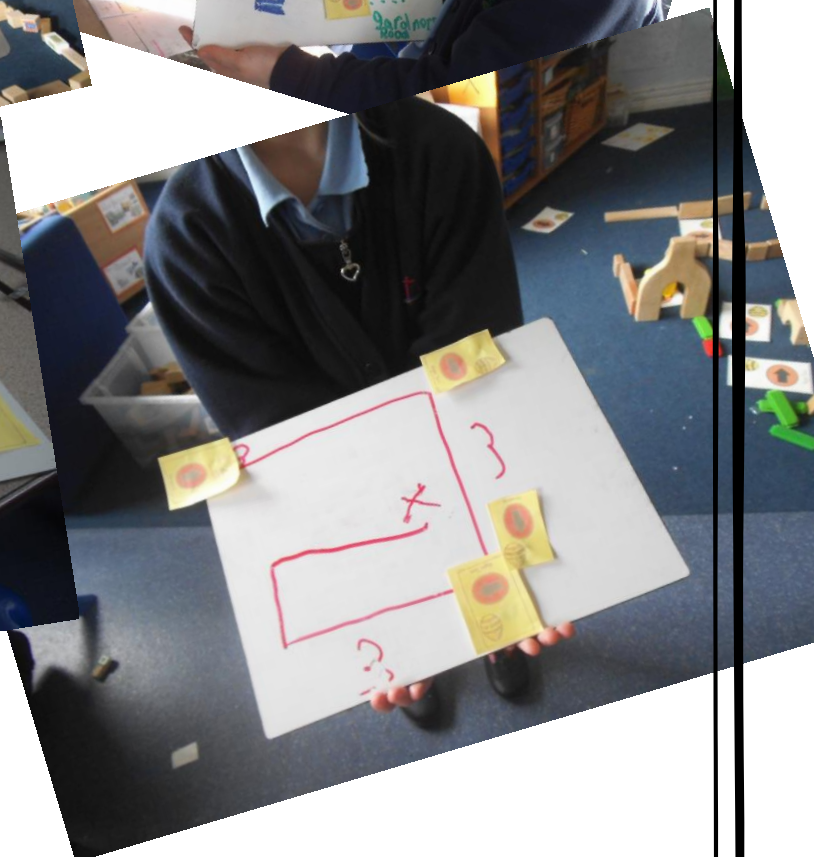

Beebots were used to navigate through the route.

The children were encourage to use geographical language...right, left, straight ahead when planning their route.

The children devised instructions using Bee Bot direction cards and recorded their programmes.

They controlled the beebots with their devised instructions. Some children noticed that there were errors so amendments to plans were changed and programmes debugged!