

On Monday RD received an envelope.....

It was a clue! We had to find the clues hidden around the classroom and read them until we found a package underneath the Christmas tree. It was an Elf sent to our class from Santa!

We have had lots of fun finding out what mischief he has been getting up to this week and produced some fantastic writing.

