

Getting on and falling out.

Year one performed a class assembly to friends and family. The children danced, sang and performed their own 'real life' drama scene.

The children shared their similarities and differences and how they were all unique but equal. They highlighted what is a good friend and what to do if there was a problem.