Story of the week

This week we have enjoyed stories around our campfire in our roleplay area before we transformed it into the forrest of Rama and Sita for Diwali.

The children have enjoyed the story of Rama and Sita and have learnt all about Diwali, we even got the chance to make a diva lamp of our own to help celebrate.

This week also marks 100 years since the end of World War 1 so we have been learning 'We'll Meet Again' by Vera Lynn and we have also made some poppy prints.

Ready, Steady, Cook- This week we baked wartime biscuits using a simple wartime reciepe.

Now that the winter weather is here could you all please make sure that the children come into school with suitably warm coats, along with hats, scarves and mittens as in nursery we go outdoors no matter what the weather! We would also appreciate your help in ensuring that the children are as independent as possible by making sure they can get all of these things on themselves.

Rhyme of the week

I'm a little diva lamp,
Short and stout.
Here's my candle,
Here's my spout.
When it is Diwali time,
Hear them shout,
'Happy Diwali!'
All about.

(Sang to the tune of 'I'm a little teapot'.)

Next Friday 16th November is Children In Need day so children can wear something spotty for a £1 donation. Children can also bring in 50p to buy a book from our used book sale. We are also still accepting used book donations leading up to this.

Craft Homework

This week we want you to get crafty! The children have enjoyed the story of Rama and Sita so we have sent home a set of finger puppets for you to make with your children so that they can retell the story at home.
