

Remembrance Day

at Lister Infant School

On the 11th day on the 11th month at 11 O'clock the children of Lister Infants stopped, were silent and remembered the men and woman who have died in all wars.

St George's Hall in Liverpool

Do you know why do we hold a two minute silence?

The first two minute silence in Britain was held on 11 November 1919, when King George V asked the public to observe a silence at 11am.

This was one year after the end of World War I.

He made the request so "the thoughts of everyone may be concentrated on reverent remembrance of the glorious dead".

A whole school assembly commemorating Remembrance day on the 11th day

11th month
at 11 O'clock.

The children enjoyed listening to a guest speaker who showed medals from World War One.

During story time the children enjoyed listening to a story about the First World War.