

World Book Week

The week started with pass the parcel. The children used clues to guess what the book might be.

A collection of poems by Julia Donaldson

Readathon

The children set a target of how many books they would read in a week. They recorded results in their World Book Day reading book.

Enjoying a book together!

Parents were invited to school to share and enjoy reading a range of books from the class library.

Dressing up as our favourite characters. But where's Wally?

Can you guess any of the characters?

Story Barn Workshop

The children enjoyed a lively interactive session with language rich texts.
