

Class RD had a Mad Science Day!

We had an amazing assembly from Mad Science called Pop, Spin, Boom!

A scientist called James came to our class and taught us about liquids. We learnt some new scientific words and James also taught us how to make slime.

We also became scientists and did our own investigations.

