

The Railway Children

As part of World Book Week we watched a performance of The Railway Children. After the show we worked with the team to try out some acting and we learnt how to use the technical equipment.

