

Remembrance Day...

in year one

What is Remembrance Day?

It marks the day World War One ended, at 11am on the 11th day of the 11th month, back in 1918.

A two-minute silence is held at 11am to remember the people who have died in wars.

We remember all the people who have died in all wars, not just World War One.

Why do we hold a two-minute silence?

The first two-minute silence in Britain was held on 11 November 1919, when King George V asked the public to observe a silence at 11am.

This was one year after the end of World War One.

The children enjoyed learning about the memorial at Lister Infants school.

They listened, looked and learned about the importance of Remembrance Day.

The children enjoyed looking at the memorial at Lister Infant school.

In recognition of the gallantry of those old boys of this school formely Green lane school who fell in action during the great war 1914-1918.

58 names are listed on this memorial plaque, if you know or are related to any of the names listed we would love to know more about the history of Lister's old boys.
