

Each class received a book for their reading corner and a special note to say we would have a mystery guest reader coming to read to us!

Our guest reader was Mr King from Lister Juniors. We loved hearing Mr King read different poems to our class.

Each day we received a daily reading challenge in the register. We loved completing the challenges!