

Asthma Awareness

The children enjoyed a workshop led by staff from Alder Hey learning about Asthma.

The children enjoyed playing games. They had a race through the tubes, one tube being clear and the other congested. The children acted like the air travelling through the tubes. Can you guess which team won?