

My News

At the weekend my family and I enjoyed some baking. I hope you to had a good weekend and I can't wait to read your news!

First we agreed upon what to bake! Aidan wanted to bake some beef pies and Eleanor wanted to make some iced digestive biscuits.

Next we found a tasty pie recipe and checked if we had all the ingredients. Luckily we had everything we needed. Eleanor knew she had everything so we we're ready for baking!

Then Aidan made the pastry and cooled it in the fridge. Meanwhile Eleanor measured out some icing sugar and added water to make the tasty topping for the biscuits.

After that Aidan measured out the pie filling and spooned it into the pastry cases not forgetting to put the pastry lids on. He then popped it into the oven for 30 minutes. Eleanor carefully spread the icing sugar over her biscuits and then cooled them in the fridge.

Finally we enjoyed eating our delicious baked food. A lovely savoury and sweet dish which we all enjoyed.

Try and use:

- First, Next, Then, After that, Finally
- Can you extend your sentences using 'and'
- Can you include adjectives – remember an adjective describes the noun and can be a colour or the size of something (Eg. A red apple or a big car.
- Don't forget to add in full stops.
- Capital letters for names, places and at the beginning of a new sentence.
