Year 1 Football Festival May 7th

Good luck to some of our year 1 boys who are due to take part in the Liverpool School Sports Partnership football Festival next Friday afternoon. We are so delighted that gradually these wonderful events are able to return and be a normal part of school life.

Attendance

Attendance in school since the most recent lockdown has been outstanding. This is great news for our children as we all work together to ensure all children are able to keep up but also that socially the children have the opportunity to play with their friends and get the best possible school experiences they can.
