

Science

Science club is full of exciting science experiments that introduce children to a wide range of science topics through active science exploration, logic and problem solving, teamwork, and promoting communication skills

